Optimize Your Security Investment

Shepherd Communication and Security provides the maintenance and additional services necessary to keep our security systems and equipment running like new and in prime condition. We offer a variety of additional services to better secure your home and keep your family safe.

When we make an installation of a security system, we can train you and your family members in the features and running of it so you get the most of your purchase. We can share monitoring services and store video if the time comes and you need it. Our preventative maintenance ensures all equipment is in perfect condition to ensure proper working order. We offer all these services at affordable cost! Our customer service team is ready to customize the services you need while personalizing your experience. You'll only receive what is essential to keeping your home and family safe from a range of dangers.
