Commercial Audio & Video Solutions

For years, we have offered businesses and residential customers advanced security solutions and have provided peace of mind. Along with being experts in commercial and residential security solutions, Shepherd Communication and Security also offers audio and video solutions. We help you determine the most appropriate set up for your situation and what equipment is best suited for you.

We offer an extensive line of displays, projections, PA system speakers, phone systems, conference room systems and more for commercial applications to meet all budgets. Our team of support technicians are also ready to help you in any way. Whether you need minor tech support or would like us to install the entire system, we can handle it all.

Shepherd Communication & Security... Audio & Video Solutions!

HOSPITALITY AUDIO:

The atmosphere and experience in your hotel, restaurant, or venue affects your bottom line. Keep your guests entertained and improve their experience with professional audio and video solutions from Shepherd Communication and Security. We have a vast selection of commercial-grade speaker systems, TV mounts, and PA systems that will enhance the experience. We offer installation and setup service to make the process as seamless as possible. We also are there for you after installation in the event you have questions or need technical support.

CONFERENCE ROOM SETUP:

Is there anything worse than a meeting disrupted by technical difficulties? Don't let a faulty webcam or speaker system ruin your productivity again. Whether you just need webcams, a speakerphone system, projectors, or want to revamp your conference room for the future, we have you covered.

DIGITAL SIGNAGE:

Your brand and showcasing your business is important; get it seen by everyone. Digital signage is much more advanced than old-fashioned signs, and you can customize and change your message remotely from a connected computer. We offer digital signs for both indoor and outdoor use in a variety of sizes to fit your current specs. Learn how upgrading to digital can impact your business. In addition, digital signage saves you money and provides more flexibility than using large format printing signs.
